The Summer Institute

We're offering three special small group opportunities for study on Wednesday nights, 7pm-8pm this summer beginning June 4. Interested? Call the church office to register. Childcare available through Grade 5.

My Identity in Christ (7 weeks)

Leading believers to become mature followers of Christ is at the heart of the church's discipleship ministry. Becoming a Christian means receiving a new identity in Christ and living a life that portrays Christlikeness. Study this exciting, transformational process in this resource from Gene Wilkes, Senior Pastor at Legacy Drive church in Plano, Texas.

Network: The Right People... In the Right Places...

...For the Right Reasons (8 weeks)

A dynamic program to help Christians understand who God has uniquely made them to be and mobilize them to a place of meaningful service in the local church. Participants learn the nature and purpose of the church as the body of Christ and the unique importance of each member's contribution. A Willow Creek resource. Jill Bennett, Leader.

Your Church Experiencing God Together (9 weeks)

In order to be effective Christians, it is necessary to invest our lives in ministry through the local church. This study addresses many thought-provoking and challenging questions, like: "What does it mean to be born into the family of God?" and "How can God use our lives to touch a world in need of salvation?" A natural follow-up to the best seller Experiencing God. Diane Lee, leader.

Worship Arts Conference

The Ponte Vedra Praise Team and Band are going to Chicago for the Worship Arts Conference at Willow Creek Community Church June 3-7. We want to take all in this group who want to go. The cost of this trip is $800 per person for the conference, airfare, hotel and car rental. While this cost is very reasonable to spend 4 days in worship, learning, developing and bonding, it is prohibitive for some of our folks. Some of the ways you can help are by donating Delta Airlines frequent flyer miles, financial gifts, Marriott points, American Express points and any other ways you might think of. If you are willing and able to financially invest and assist this group to get to this life changing and church changing conference please call Carol Zur at the office, drop your gift by the office or in the offering plate. Please mark your gift "Arts Conference."

OUR MISSION STATEMENT:

- to know Jesus
- to grow disciples
- to show love
- to go and make disciples of Jesus Christ

Good to Read

Our church library is up and running! Located on a cart near the sound booth and alcove, the books are all faith-based and have been reviewed by Pastor Jeff. Come and see the various choices - from biblical studies, to how to cope with teens in their difficult years to dealing with a loss of a loved one and more. If you'd like to take out a book, fill in your name, the name of the book you're borrowing, etc. in the notebook located on the top of the cart.

The books have come from Seymour's Bookstore (in the PVB Public Library) and from members of the church. If you'd like to donate your books, leave them in Denese's office or call Mims Cushing, church librarian, at 285-5781.

Pastor's Picks

Might you be the next Olan Mills? I'm looking for one or more photographers to take digital photos of the members and friends of our growing congregation. We're not talking pictorial directory quite yet but it sure would be helpful to have a "face book" around when you just can't put a name to the face or vice versa.

If you're out there, Olan, please give me a call at 280-5141. And the rest of you get ready to say Cheese!

The Kingdom Assignment

Here's yet another story of one of the $100 bills handed to volunteers at the November 17 services as part of the Kingdom Assignment. Sandy Milan and son Max used the money entrusted to them in two ways. They decided early on to spend $25 on a gift for a child on the Angel Tree. The remainder went to underwrite the bi-fold business size cards now available for you to give to people you invite to church. (These are on the cart next to the sound booth; help yourself.)

Here's a twist. Sandy suggests that we listen first and then invite. Sandy says you might tape a penny to the back of a card and write "Penny for your thoughts" as a reminder to listen to others. If we also remember to listen to God he'll guide us in meeting that person right where they're at.

Thanks, Sandy and Max for listening to God. May the kingdom be extended through the faith-

A Note From Pastor Jeff.

You've been hearing about our plans to send our musicians to The Arts Conference at Willow Creek Community Church in Chicago in June. I've decided that I'd like to send another 20 of you to a Willow Creek event. The good news is you won't even have to leave Jacksonville!

The Leadership Summit 2003 is being held August 7-9 in Chicago with satellite locations across North America. One of those locations is CrossRoad United Methodist Church, located on Gate Parkway just north of JTB.

I attended last year's Leadership Summit at Crossroad and came away mightily impressed. The speakers were awesome, the facility ideal, and I got to sleep in my own bed at night! This year's event promises to be even better if you'll be sitting with me as we experience it together. It will be a great opportunity to grow personally, connect with others, and dream big dreams as together we pursue our God-given vision for the unique ministry of our church.

The faculty this year includes pastors Bill Hybels and Andy Stanley, author Jim Collins (Built to Last, Good to Great), Karen Hughes (former White House Press Secretary) and more. You can read about the summit at <http://www.willowcreek.com/conference/summit/index.asp>
