Philippians Message Series to Begin January 11

The apostle Paul wrote a most amazing letter to the church at Philippi. Paul's circumstances were bleak; it is widely believed by scholars that Paul was in prison in Rome at the time he wrote it. Despite his lot in life, throughout the letter Paul speaks again and again of his joy. Joy? How can this be!?

While you may never be imprisoned, it is a given that you will face unhappy days. How wonderful to know joy even in the midst of trouble. If Paul could be filled with joy, you can be too. Let's see what Paul can teach us through Pastor Jeff's upcoming series, Joy in Adversity. Beginning January 11.

Coming Soon... Crown

Crown's Biblical Financial Study is a 10 week in-depth study of what scripture teaches about money and possessions. Participants have confirmed that marriages are being strengthened and individuals are finding their way out of debt. They are also becoming consistent savers, generous givers, and prudent consumers. Most importantly, people are entering into a closer relationship with Jesus Christ as they learn to apply his word. The group will meet for 2 hours every week and include scripture memorization and interactive discussions. The group will be led by Crown veterans Ralph and Sadie Snyder. Sunday afternoons beginning February 15.

Upcoming Messages

January 4 "Where to Find Jesus" (Isaiah 60:1-6, Matthew 2:1-12)

The Giving Tree

We've received 49 Publix gift cards totaling $1170 for BEAM (Beaches Emergency Assistance Ministry). Wow! These cards will come in handy for meeting needs beyond the food items normally stocked in BEAM's pantry, things like diapers and baby formula. The cards we gave last year lasted BEAM through the beginning of summer. Your giving makes a difference. Thank you!

Missions Blitz

Our thanks to the youth and the adults (and children!) who joined them in their December 21/22 Mission Blitz. You gave freely of your time and were a blessing to many. May God bless each of you!

From a Grateful Staff...

Thank you, Ponte Vedra UMC, for blessing us with a generous Christmas gift. You are always quick to share words of encouragement and now you have blessed us in this way too. You are giving people and we are privileged to serve Christ through serving you.

Campaign Followup

We are now nine months into our 36-month capital campaign. We signed off on the loan December 22 and site preparation is under way. The contractor tells us that the site should be cleared within two to three weeks.

Since work has now commenced, let's be praying for the many workers who will be employed through our project. May God keep them safe and bless them to know that their workplace is holy ground, consecrated to God's purposes. May they know joy at building a facility that will be used to glorify God, serving the body of Christ as we reach out in love to our community and the world.

Thank you praying for and giving in support of this ambitious project.

– Your Followup Director Team: Jim Wynn, Dave & Patricia Branham

A Note From Pastor Jeff:

I came across this ad in a catalog a couple of months ago:

Inflatable Manger Cradle. A must for any Nativity scene, this inflatable vinyl cradle folds flat for storage. 14" x 44". $5.99 Each.

It just struck me wrong. Yes, it looks cheap and tacky. (A blow up manger? Give me a break!) But the whole idea of storing it away seemed somehow sacrilegious. I say this knowing full well that as soon as I return from my week's vacation I will be hauling the artificial tree, bins of ornaments, lights and other decorations into the garage attic. But to pack away baby Jesus's bed? My!

It may sound sacrilegious, but it's not. It's good to linger at the manger but let's face it: the baby Jesus does grow up. And this Jesus calls us to follow him. Hanging around an empty feed trough isn't what he has in mind. At best we carry Christmas with us, holding fast to our memory of the time God-with-us came to earth as a baby.

So we can take a pass on the inflatable-manger-cradle-that-folds-flat-for-storage. While the attic can hold the trappings of Christmas, only the human heart can hold the treasure of Christmas.
