PVUMC 'Serving' as the Hands and Feet of Christ

Last Sunday, so many of you participated in Serve Day activities throughout the church and in the community. You prepared and packaged over 140 toiletry packages for the children in Panama, nearly 300 sandwiches for the homeless, 330 backpacks for hungry school children, and 6000 high protein meals for the poor. Our landscape team spent the morning beautifying the unkempt yard of an elderly woman as she spent the day with her hospitalized disabled daughter, and our BEAM team sorted hundreds of cans of donated food. Craft projects were prepared for our Vacation Bible Schools, and the children planted flowers to beautify the front of the church. And, the cook-out team prepared a wonderful meal to feed us! Thanks to all for your awesome service! "For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." Ephesians 2:10.

St. Paul School of Excellence

St. Paul School of Excellence is a free charter school in the Lincolnville area of St. Augustine. Ponte Vedra UMC has partnered with this school in many areas with the goal of improving the educational outcomes of the children. Education and opportunity go hand in hand in helping children out of poverty. While we provide every student in this school with a weekend backpack of food as part of our Blessings in a Backpack Ministry, we've recognized that we can do so much more to impact the lives of these children by providing some of the assistance and tools they need to succeed. This school year many of you have worked towards building the library at St Paul, helped to sponsor a Valentine Read-In, provided funding for software to help the students develop their math skills, and created an art awareness program that allows for hands-on participation by the students. Others have provided much needed school and office supplies, items to improve the safety of the children, and personal donations for the school staff.

This summer, we have an opportunity to assist these children by providing financial assistance towards the 7-week summer camp. Ponte Vedra UMC's Vacation Bible School is incorporated into this summer camp experience, so volunteering for VBS will allow you to meet many of the children that have been influenced by PVUMC's involvement. If you are interested in assisting in the many opportunities available to help influence the lives of these at-risk children, please contact Laura Lovett at laura.lovett@pv-umc.org, Sharon Kehoe at sharon.kehoe@pv-umc.org or Jenn Smith at jenn.smith@pv-umc.org.

On June 22, Ms. Mary Hemphill-Davis, the Principal of St. Paul School of Excellence, will speak briefly to the congregation about St Paul School of Excellence, and thank you personally for your investment in the future of her students.

Did You Know?

All loose change in the offering each Sunday is given to our sister church La Sierra Methodist in Cuba. Small amounts of money given by many can accomplish great things.

Florida United Methodist Children's Home 5th Sunday Offering

Each 5th Sunday we receive a special offering for the Florida United Methodist Children's Home located in Enterprise. The Home's ministry includes residential care, emergency shelter care, therapeutic group care, independent living, foster care and adoption services. Children come because of abuse, abandonment or because of family breakdown due to divorce, drug abuse, illness or death of a parent. Look for FUMCH giving envelopes in your Sunday bulletins on June 22nd and 29th.

Volunteer Opportunities

There are many open Sundays on the snack calendar. Everyone loves to have a small snack at the table in the foyer before or after worship service as you visit with your church family. Please consider providing Sunday morning snacks in honor of a loved one, in memory of someone or simply because you enjoy it! You can get together with friends or make it a family project, cook up your favorite snack recipe or bring it straight from the grocery store. The snack calendar is located over the table outside the infant nursery. The food is served between church services from 10:30 - 11:00am. Thanks to all of you who have provided snacks in the past.

Make an ordinary summer extraordinary by volunteering for Vacation Bible School! Workshop of Wonders begins Monday, June 23 at 9:00am. There are many areas that could use your help to make this year's VBS the best yet! Rita Andreu says, "I look forward to VBS every summer. I treasure the music and the fellowship, but my favorite thing is teaching science. It is a blast to watch the students explore and conduct hands-on experiments. They are so inquisitive and creative in their questions and actions. Seeing them interact with one another and make the connections to Jesus' love and His word is priceless. The past two years I have led the science activities at Lincolnville as well as PVUMC. What a blessing! The children touched my heart in indescribable ways. If you want to be blessed, you need to volunteer and join me. You don't know what you are missing!"

Welcome, New Members!

On May 25 we received new members Marc & Susan Sprouse. It is our joy to be serving Christ together with you! (PVUMC now has 408 members.)

C.I.A. Plays!

What a Mother's Day gift to all! Congratulations on a fantastic job playing bells on May 11!

Serve Sunday Participants!

Great job all Serve Sunday volunteers that helped make and prepare VBS crafts for both PVUMC and Lincolnville! To the volunteers that helped plant sunflower seeds, thanks! Keep an eye out on the circular flower bed in the parking lot. Our sunflowers are growing nicely and should be in full bloom by late mid-summer.

C.I.A. Briefs

Thank You C.I.A. Volunteers! We have had an incredible year in C.I.A. and it is because of our outstanding volunteers helping every Wednesday night. Thank You Lisa Middleton and Mindy Waters for giving your time and energy every Wednesday. C.I.A. will resume the first week of September.

Kingdom Kids

Thank You Kingdom Kids Teachers! All school year Kingdom Kids has run 4-5 classes each Sunday! These classes have been staffed by wonderful volunteers, some of whom have been teaching many years!

If you see one of the following, make sure you tell them how much you appreciate the planning, creativity, knowledge and love that they have imparted on our children: Jill Bennett, Nancy Noble, Jenny Howard, Lisa Middleton, Carolin Skordas, Renee Reimer, Amy Beane, Tena Schlingmann, Yolie Macon, Ken Kehoe, Jenn Smith, Angie Moss, Tommie Hall and Randy Bringger.

United Methodist Women News

At our May 17 meeting, Jennie Dorsey presented our program. It included a historical review of the UMW's beginning followed by reports of mission outreach in three countries, ending with reflections of Mother's Day. A worship center display of pictures, a grandmother's gift of a first Bible, a beautiful Christening gown used by generations, a daughter's poem portrayed the love of God, the love of family, the love of a child and the love of a mother. These special reminders of love and memories are safely tucked away in our hearts forever.

Our next meeting is scheduled for July 12 at 10:00am in room 207. All women are invited.

Now, I find myself on the move again. As I write this article I still have no idea exactly where I am going, but I know that God is already there. Just the other day the district superintendent that I am working with gave me a hint but said, "It could change." In other words, I still don't know where I am going. However, I can tell you this: God is already there. And, God is certainly here at PVUMC!

Since I have been on staff here I have seen God show up in amazing ways. I have seen God work through our inspirational worship services, our growing small groups, and as we were serving the poor in places as far away as Panama and as close as Lincolnville. I have witnessed hungry children taking home a backpack on the weekend through our Blessings in a Backpack program. I have also been encouraged by God's peace and counsel as our newly formed care team visits those who are homebound and in the hospital. So, two and a half years ago before I came on staff I didn't know where I was going but God was already here.

Once again I find myself pondering the reality that I don't know where I am going but knowing that God is already there. And I have got to tell you, it's been an exciting journey! I have served country churches where a good Sunday meant twenty-five people. And, I have served on staff at large urban churches where a good Sunday meant that fifteen hundred were in attendance. Ultimately I have found that size doesn't matter. It only matters if God shows up. And, by the way, God never lets me down! In the last several years, I have been downsized (in other words, "fired") at a church, endured the loss of my mother (she died suddenly the day after Christmas in 2010), and struggled with cancer treatments last fall (thank God I am now cancer free). And, in all of this, I didn't know what was coming, but God's healing and powerful presence were already there.

So, now, as I enter the twentieth year of my pastoral ministry, all of these experiences lead me to think the following: It doesn't really matter where I am going, it only matters that God is already there. I will truly miss you all. I love you and will forever hold you in my heart! Feel free to keep in touch with me at my permanent email address: pastorjimmyjones@gmail.com.

- Pastor Jimmy

A Note From Pastor Jimmy:

I am one of those people who is directionally challenged. If it weren't for GPS and my wife, I'd be lost most of the time. I am one of those guys who always thinks that there must be a better way to get somewhere than the way that I am going. And, in my pastoral life, it's often been the case that, I don't know where I am going, but I know that God is already there.

Let me explain. In the United Methodist Church, pastors are assigned to churches in consultation with a district superintendent (who oversees churches in a designated geographical area) and a bishop (who oversees churches in what we refer to as "annual conferences") who determine the needs of pastors and churches before making clergy assignments. Twice I have been asked to move to larger churches by a district superintendent and once I was asked by a senior pastor to come on staff to assist him at a large church. Two and a half years ago, over coffee, I asked Pastor Jeff if he needed some help at Ponte Vedra UMC. I am so glad that he said yes.
