Easter Musical, "Come Walk With Me"

In this fresh and dramatic setting of the Passion story a narrator leads us from scene to scene, retracing Christ's path during his last days in human form. Brief monologues from those witnessing or participating in Christ's final steps enhance the stark reality of each scene with their observations, frustrations and fears. The music supplies the drama and passion through its incredible mix of styles that range from classical to Appalachian, bluegrass, and Celtic folk. Under the direction of Elisabeth Crumrine, our traditional choir brings us this dramatic musical at both worship hours Palm Sunday, March 29.

Donna Bowen named Pastor for Spirituality & the Arts

Our Staff Parish Relations Committee has named the Reverend Donna Bowen (retired UMC elder, Virginia Annual Conference) as Ponte Vedra UMC's Pastor for Spirituality & the Arts. This is a new volunteer position.

Donna will be leading short term studies in spirituality, assisting in special worship services, introducing visual arts in worship, providing retreats using spiritual disciplines, providing a woman's voice in the pulpit on occasion and leading studies on John Wesley and Methodist beliefs. She will be leading our upcoming family retreat at Epworth by the Sea, has preached here, led short term studies, decorated the altar, and assisted in worship. Donna has been a regular participant in the weekly worship planning team. She and husband Fred are typically with us September through May.

Donna is a gifted pastor whose interests complement Pastor Jeff's and Pastor David's. She will be a fine addition to the PVUMC staff team. Welcome, Pastor Donna!

Money Matters

Double Down on Debt

In December PVUMC received a $100,000 matching gift to be used to reduce the church's mortgage debt. As of February 15 we'd received $26,084 which when doubled nearly satisfies our $64,000 parsonage mortgage. (Our next report will be Sunday, March 1.) Fully matching this gift pays off the parsonage and reduces the time needed to pay off the sanctuary building from more than 14 years to less than 11. This is a tremendous opportunity to free the church of the future for increased mission and ministry. Your gift designated "Debt Reduction" will be doubled! (Debt Reduction is a listed option in our online giving service. See pv-umc.org/give for details on online giving.) Our opportunity to Double Down on Debt concludes March 31.

United Methodist Women News

On Sunday, February 22 the UMW celebrated our first United Methodist Women Recognition Sunday. Past president pins were presented to Delores Harrison and Ann Cook. It is customary for the UMW to present special mission recognition pins to those who have made a difference in the lives of others. Our honored recipients were Ann Cook for her tireless volunteer work in many different areas at PVUMC, Mary Lil McClure for her life-long commitment to UMW and Debi Russillo as volunteer leader to “Home Again St. John’s” food sharing program.

On Monday, March 23 the United Methodist Women will celebrate our 146th birthday. The UMW began with 8 women in Boston and we now have approximately 800,000 in membership. We are honored to be part of this tremendous organization.

Our next meeting will be Saturday, March 21 in the church foyer from 10:00am - noon. A nursery is available, but please note that reservations are required due Wednesday, March 18. They can be made through Corrine Garrison at 616-2351 or email Jo Miller, jo.miller@pv-umc.org. Kay Lawson will be our guest and will speak to us about our fall pecan sale. As a special treat, the lovely kneelers which are being stitched at this time will be on display at the altar railing. Remember, ALL women are most cordially welcomed!

All Around Easter

A Note From Pastor Jeff: I read the quote in the Times-Union the day after Ash Wednesday. “It’s really quick and easy; you just come and go home.” The 12-year-old was talking about a roadside opportunity to receive ashes. On the one hand, I’m very much in favor of taking church to the streets and I encourage everyone who does this. On the other hand, “quick and easy” is a cultural value that cuts against following Jesus. While not everything about following Jesus is long and difficult, Jesus did say, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.” (Luke 9:23) That sounds neither quick nor easy.

I get the culture; I live in it every day. Even in church I hear about how it’s just too much for people to spend an hour in worship and another hour in a small group Bible study, or teaching the faith to children, or helping the good news of Jesus become real to youth. Jesus gets an hour a week. Quick and easy.

I hope that during this season of Lent you are in some way making a sacrifice for the sake of your relationship with Jesus. May you grow closer to the One who gave his life for you and wants to give his life to you.

May God bless you to be inconvenienced by the gospel,
Pastor Jeff
