Church wide Study "Revival" Begins September 20

After feeling his heart "strangely warmed" by God, John Wesley ignited a firestorm of revival in England and America. Wesley's message and his faith continue to speak to 21st-century Christians—calling for a revival of our hearts and souls so that our world might be changed.

Small groups will join author and pastor Adam Hamilton for a six-week journey as he travels to England, following the life of John Wesley and exploring his defining characteristics of a Wesleyan Christian. Wesley's story is our story. It defines our faith and challenges us to rediscover our spiritual passion.

Get your copy of Hamilton's book Revival and sign up for a small group study Sunday!

The purpose of the meeting will be to provide information, answer questions, and receive feedback on the proposal. Lease of an 80x80' portion of the parcel could generate between $1,000 to $2,000 per month, depending on the number of antennas installed within the pole.

For those who received this email but do not have a digital picture to upload, you may have a picture taken after the 9:30am and 11:00am services on Sunday, September 13. Please email Charles Lovings, charles.lovings@pv-umc.org indicating that you want your picture taken and which service you attend.

If you have not received an email requesting a picture, most likely it is because we do not have your current email address. If you have not heard from Charles, please email Charles with the email address you wish to use.

We hope to go live with our directory by the end of September and it can be accessed by a link on the PVUMC website. There are also iPhone and Android apps which allow access to the online directory. We will provide instructions for creating your password and user ids when the directory goes live. Printed directories will be made available.

A Word from John Wesley, founder of Methodism

With the rhetoric of those seeking their party's nomination for president at full steam, I (Pastor Jeff) thought you might be intrigued by John Wesley's reflection on a visit to British Parliament:

I spent two or three hours in the House of Lords. I had frequently heard that this was the most venerable assembly in England. But how was I disappointed? What is a lord but a sinner, born to die!

Invitation to Christian Meditation

Do you long to fall deeper in love with God and the people in your life? Do you know how to spend time in silence just listening to God and soaking up His love? PVUMC is offering three four-week sessions offering an introduction to Christian meditation. The first session will meet on Wednesday mornings at 9:00am in room 207 beginning on September 9. (An evening session will be offered in October and an afternoon session in November.)

Margaret Fleming, a writer for 2015 Disciplines and the Assistant Attorney General for the Alabama Attorney General's Office shares from her experience of Christian meditation: "For God's power to return (the power of miracles and renewal), my own way of being present with others must undergo a transformation. I must learn to be present to the moment without boxing it in. I must learn to see people as they are without judging them, for it is judgment that closes the box on the moment. This sort of appreciative awareness lies at the heart of contemplative practice, and it is essential to my allowing God's power back in my world...For me, prayer is a time of total vulnerability and utter surrender. These qualities make this endeavor seem a little scary. But it offers me a place to go where I find my connection to a strength that is humble, gentle and yielding. In this place I can sense that I am slowly changing, becoming more and more open, like the gentle Spirit."

Be bold and join us in an introduction to a prayer practice that will change your life! Led by Pastor Donna.

A Note From Pastor Jeff.

Eleven days, five states, four national parks, and 2,000 miles in a rented minivan. I'm calling it "the vacation of a lifetime." Our family of five flew to Salt Lake City and visited Bryce Canyon, Grand Canyon – North Rim, Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks. Everything was new to our children and most of it was new to Jill and me. The natural beauty of landscapes and wildlife far different from what we know on Florida's east coast was breathtaking.

Just a few days ago I was on an early morning bicycle ride and struck by the beauty of where we live. I witnessed a "cloud scape" that rivaled the grandeur of the Grand Canyon. To watch the sun rising over the vast Atlantic Ocean is awesome. I wonder how many times I have failed to see this part of God's beautiful creation simply because I'm so used to it. For that matter, how many times have I failed to appreciate the pinnacle of God's creation, my fellow human beings?

So I'm making a point to see the splendor in nature, from grand vistas to the tiniest creatures. And to marvel at the people I encounter, each of whom is created in God's image, from the kindergartner at my kids' bus stop to the person sitting next to me in worship to the grumpy person ahead of me in line at the store. Each person loved by God, each person celebrated by God even more than the splendor a new day dawning. May God bless us to see.

Pastor Jeff
